

CHEBOI EZEKIEL KIPTOO

	Cheboi Ezekiel Kiptoo Assistant Lecturer Faculty of Environment and Resources Development, Department of Natural Resources Egerton University P. O. Box 536, 20115 Egerton, Kenya Mobile: +254-722 124 207 Email: zekboi@yahoo.com or zekboi@gmail.com
---	---

EDUCATION

2012	MSc. Natural Resources Management	Egerton University, Kenya
2005	BSc. Natural Resources Management	Egerton University, Kenya
1995	Diploma Earth Science	Kenya Polytechnic, Kenya

FIELD OF SPECIALIZATION

Natural Resources Management with a bias on Ground Water Resources
--

WORK EXPERIENCE

Feb. 2013 – present	Field Attachment Coordinator, Natural Resources Department, Egerton University
Aug. 2013 – present	Assistant Lecturer, Natural Resources Department, Egerton University
2009 – 2012	Coordinator, Certificate Ecotourism and Hospitality Management
2008 – 2012	Senior Technologist, Natural Resources Department, Egerton University
1996 – 2008	Technologist, Natural Resources Department, Egerton University

PUBLICATIONS

1.	KIBUE, G.W, KARACHI, M., MARA, N.T. AND CHEBOI, E.K. (2011). PERPETUATED HUMAN-WILDLIFE WARS: A CASE STUDY OF THE MARAUDING ELEPHANTS IN MBUVORI SMALL SCALE FARMS, EMBU, KENYA. EAST AFRICA SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH REVIEW (EASSRR) VOL. 27, NO. 1
----	---

CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

	Cheboi, E.K., Gichaba, C.M., and Karachi, M. (2012). Hydrogeologic Characterisation of Groundwater system in River Njoro Watershed, Kenya. A paper presented in the 13 th the International Conference of the Geological society of Kenya (GSK) held on 21 st – 23 rd March 2012, Nairobi Kenya.
--	---

OTHER PUBLICATIONS

	Community Gemstone Mining, A Case Study of Taita Taveta, Kenya- The Kenya Land Alliance Publication
--	---

CONSULTANCY

Consulted for The Kenya Land Alliance in 2007 to carry out a study on Community Gemstone Mining in Taita Taveta District.